

What is a Podcast?

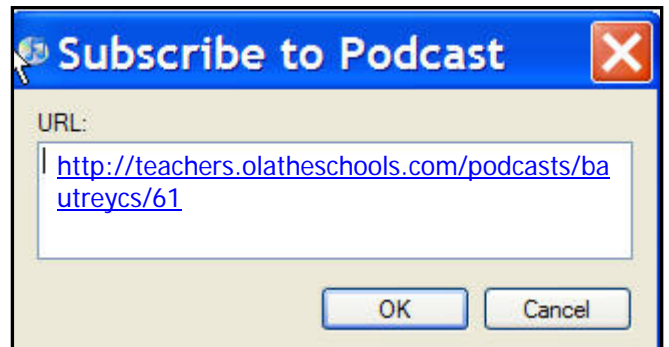

Think of a Podcast as a radio show. Each show consists of a series of individual episodes that you can listen to on your PC, using your MP3P player, an iPod, a Palm handheld computer, or with a web browser.

Subscribe to Countryside's Podcast:

When you subscribe to a Podcast, you'll get the newest episodes delivered right to you as soon as they're available. To subscribe, you'll need to get some great music software like Apple iTunes®, or Juice®. New episodes will show up there whenever they're available.

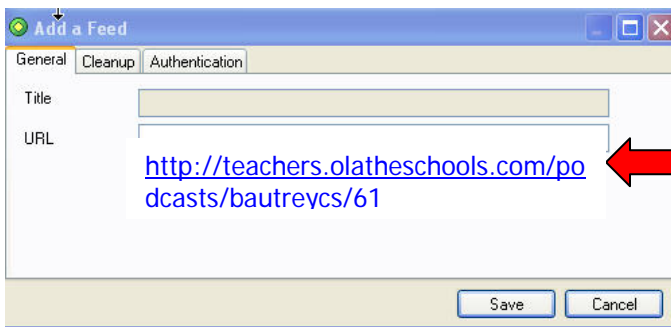

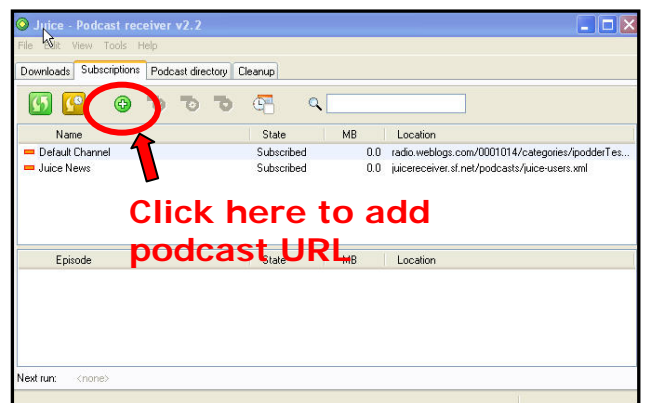

To add the Podcast to iTunes®

1. Open iTunes
2. Copy the URL for the Podcast you created
3. Click on Advanced in the menu bar
4. Click on Subscribe to Podcast
5. Paste or type in the URL of the Podcast you created.
6. Click OK

To Add the Podcast to Juice®

1. Open Juice®
2. Copy the URL for the podcast you created
3. Click on the green circle icon
4. Paste or type in the URL in the space provided. Click Save.

Type URL here Juice will automatically add title.

Podcast Resources

Audacity: <http://audacity.sourceforge.net/>

Lame: <http://www-users.york.ac.uk/~raa110/audacity/lame.html>

iTunes©: <http://www.apple.com/itunes/weekly/>

Juice©: <http://juicereceiver.sourceforge.net/>

Magnatune: <http://www.magnatune.com>

Top Podcast Sites

Learning In Hand: <http://www.learninginhand.com/podcasting/index.html>

The Education Podcast Directory: <http://epnweb.org/>

Podcasting News: http://www.podcastingnews.com/forum/link_6.htm

Podcast Pickle: <http://www.podcastpickle.com/>

Podcast Awards: <http://www.podcastawards.com/>

Top Ten Education Sites:

http://www.idiotvox.com/Podcasts_About_Education_19.html